The Old Broad Bay Family History Association, P.O. Box 1242, Waldoboro, ME 04572

September 2002

Reunion

Registration began at 8 a.m. at the Meanahga Grange Hall in Waldoboro, Maine on August 3rd 2002. There were 19 registrants. An informal information-sharing session followed. Coffee and muffins were available to attendees.

The Speaker

The annual meeting was preceded by a talk by Russ Schofield sharing his experiences after purchasing the Jasper J. Stahl homestead in Waldoboro. Mr. Schofield hosted a tour of the residence for members after the mid-day luncheon.

Annual Meeting

President Randall Gross opened the annual meeting immediately following Mr. Schofield's talk. The treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Officers Re-elected

The following officers were re-elected for the year 2002-2003; Randall Gross, President, Joyce B. Brown, Secretary, and William R. Conary, Treasurer.

Newsletter Editor Resigns

Ann Hart, editor of the newsletter for the last two years, tendered her resignation in July. A search is being conducted to find a replacement. Any volunteers?

Annual Dues Reduced

The Association voted to reduce the annual dues to $10 from $20 per year. Members who have already prepaid $20 will be credited with two years membership.

Topics of Discussion

1. The need for goals and by-laws.
2. The double booking of facilities by Grange.
3. Did the Association want to place a plaque at the site of the mass burial of 17 early settlers of Waldoboro who died during the first winter? Rich Castner volunteered as chairman of a committee to study the idea. Interested members are invited to serve as members of this committee.
4. Rich Castner received a round of applause for arranging to have a copying machine available for the meeting.
5. The Treasurer was asked to submit a budget for the year 2003.

Luncheon

The mid-day luncheon of chicken pot pie and gelatin salad was provided by St. Paul's Chapel of Waldoboro.
